NSPCC hit the city streets

MAX Tillings is the new chairman of Canterbury's National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

He said: "We are working from the ground up and would like to hear from volunteers"

The new branch has 15 members. Its first meeting was held last Saturday.

They will be collecting at Debenhams in Guildhall Street next Wednesday, March 5, and at B&Q DIY store in Sturry Road on Friday and Saturday, March 8 & 9.

If you would like to join, call Katrina on 01303 844561.
